Las Vecinas Hears Young Couple Describe Round-the-World Trip

When the husbands joined their spouses at the November Las Vecinas meeting they were entertained by Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence Van Mourick, who showed films and spoke on the subject, "Which Road to India?"

This young couple told of their 16,000-mile drive from Europe, through the Middle East, to India. Which road often meant the only road, if and when it could be called that.

With a desire to meet and understand the peoples of the world, their customers, religions, and ways of life, the Van Mouricks embarked upon their adventure with little money, but lots of enthusiasm.

After enduring unusual hardships and having many unique experiences, they settled down to live in an Indian neighborhood of New Delhi, the capital of India. Van Mourick did graduate research at Delhi University, and later they both worked in the American Pavilion at the 1955 International Trade Fair in India.

All of their trip was recorded on color film, accompanied by music and sound taped on the scene.

The Las Vecinas choir sang the following numbers: "Carolina" by Vincent Youmans; "Look for the Silver Lining," by Jerome Kerns, and "Italian Street Song," by Victor Herbert. Dorothy Creighton took the solo part in the latter. As an encore the chorus sang "You're Not Sick, You're Just in Love!"

Two Brownie troops held investiture ceremonies for new members this week. Darlene Clow and Frances Zoeller, of Troop 256, were invested Tuesday evening at the home of their leader, Mrs. Darrell Werden, 332 Calle Mayor.

Mrs. William Zoeller, troop co-leader, assisted Mrs. Werden. Refreshments of hot chocolate and cookies for parents and friends were prepared and served by the troop members, Diana Darby, Alice Dennis, Claudia Hoyt, Nancy Ruby, Susan Strater, Roxanne Werden, Sheridan Wilson and Louise Zoeller.

On Wednesday evening Mrs. Clarence Connelly, leader of Troop 216, invited Jennifer Greene, Nan Hoefling, Therese Strand, and Christine Hunt. The program, with family and friends attending, was held at the home of troop co-leader, Mrs. John Reamer, 316 Ave. F.

Following the investiture, one-year membership stars were awarded to troop members Mary Jo Connelly, Candace Fleener, Victorie Hajek, Mary Harmel, Nancy Reamer, and Dyanne Speech. Refreshments were served by Mmes. Robert Speech, Carl Harmel, and George Hajek. Four Brownie dolls added a pixie touch to the green-decked "fairy pool," traditional to investiture ceremonies. (The four dolls were borrowed from the girls. Last year, Tobey Connelly actually designed and made 18 of those stuffed dolls for her troop's Christmas presents.)

And while a lot of us girls are forever struggling to lose a few pounds, that little Ginny Satterlee is getting littler. As you know, Ginny and her husband, Jack, really keep on the go.

They're deep in Scout work. While it doesn't seem to hurt Jack, Ginny is actually losing weight. So, she's off to her sister's in Sacramento for a few days, and this understanding sister is going to put her to bed and serve her meals there.

Now I know what "blue Monday" means — two Mondays ago your columnist's younger son, Jerry, got his nose broken when it connected with someone's elbow while playing football.

Last Monday my older boy, Mel, received a concussion when his head came in contact with someone's knee during a football game. The season is over!
